THE COLLEGIATE RECOVERY COMMUNITY
APPLICATION

The Collegiate Recovery Community at UNC Charlotte provides a nurturing, affirming environment in which students recovering from addictive disorders can successfully pursue academic, personal, and professional goals for the purpose of enhancing their quality of life and becoming productive members of society. The community is open to all students in recovery who are actively pursuing higher education at UNC Charlotte and who are committed to growth in recovery.

Program Eligibility
● Applying and/or accepted into UNC Charlotte
● Two weeks sobriety. Students with less than two weeks sobriety should reach out for individual consultation appointment at 704-687-7404.
● Willingness to commit to ongoing sobriety.
● Commitment to CRC program requirements: see CRC Community Expectations document

Application Process
Applications for the CRC are accepted on a rolling admissions basis. The application process consists of a two-fold process.
● Each new member will (1) complete all appropriate documentation and (2) request a clinical interview with CRC staff where documentation will be reviewed.
  ○ The following documentation should be completed and submitted. Each can be found on our website https://wellness.uncc.edu/recovery
